THANKS, EVERYONE!!!

Our school year is over, and we would like to thank all parishioners who have supported our many fundraisers over the year! We also thank all those who have registered for the Walk/Run or who have offered to help with that or the Motorcycle Ride/Raffle, yet to be held this summer ---all to raise money for new playground equipment. We thank our many volunteers and parents for all they have done to support our efforts! We are at our best with your help

From Father Pat

The Word Is the Living Bread

The Word has given himself as food, and the Father is a bed where the soul takes its rest. Love! Love! There isn't a thing we lack: a garment of fire against the cold, food against starvation, a bed against exhaustion. Fall, fall in love with God, and let your soul and conscience grow big in Him! Don't choose to do the bare minimum, for that cuts off the arms of holy desire. We don't have to be so small-hearted in the face of such generosity – for since we are pilgrims this incarnate Word has accompanied us on our journey and has given us Himself as food to enable us to run courageously. He is such a loving companion to souls who follow him that when we reach the end in death He puts us to rest in that bed, that peaceful sea of divine Being, where we receive the eternal vision of God. It seems this is what the dear mouth of Truth meant on the wood of the most holy cross when He said, "Into your hands, Lord, I commend my spirit." Oh gentle Jesus, you are in the Father, but we were not, because like gangrenous members we were deprived of grace by sin. So what He said was said for us, since in his dose companionship with us, making us one with Himself, He considered what was ours as His own. Oh fire of love! -Saint Catherine of Siena
