WILLS AND BEQUESTS

Please consider the needs of our parish and school. The Corporate title is: St. Joseph Congregation Dodgeville, WI

October 16, 2011 ·
TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

From Father Pat

Parts of the Mass

Fraction:

"The priest breaks the Eucharistic Bread The gesture of breaking bread done by Christ at the Last Supper ... in apostolic times gave the entire Eucharistic Action its name" (GIRM, no. 83).

Communion:

Holy Communion, the reception of the Body and Blood of Christ in the Eucharist.

Praying with Body, Mind, and Voice

ORANS

The priest frequently uses this ancient prayer posture, extending his hands to his sides, slightly elevated. Orans means "praying." Early Christian art frequently depicts the saints and others standing in this posture, offering their prayers and surrendering themselves, with hands uplifted to the Lord, in a gesture that echoes Christ's outstretched arms as he offered himself on the Cross.

PROSTRATING

In this rarely used posture, an individual lays full-length on the floor, face to the ground. A posture of deep humility, it signifies our willingness to share in Christ's death so as to share in his Resurrection (see Rom 6). It is used at the beginning of the Celebration of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday and also during the Litany of the Saints in the Rite of Ordination, when those to be ordained deacons, priests, and bishops prostrate themselves in humble prayer and submission to Christ.

Words in the Roman Missal

Ineffable:

That which cannot be conceived or expressed fully (see 1 Cor 2:6-9). One cannot, for example, adequately describe in concepts and words the mystery of the Trinity or the mystery of the Incarnation.

Infusion:

The Holy Spirit is poured into the hearts and souls of believers, and so they are filled, or infused, with grace.

Intercessor:

One who makes a petition on behalf of others. Our unique intercessor is Jesus Christ, who intercedes on our behalf with the Father (see Rom 8:34). The priest at Mass acting in the person of Christ intercedes on behalf of the whole Church.
